BAPTIZING

Sunday, August 1, we will baptize during the morning service. If you have been thinking about joining the church and being baptized, today is the perfect day for you to join the church so you can participate!

CHILDREN'S CHURCH AND NURSERY WORKERS NEEDED!

Do you love children? Would you be willing to spend an hour with them? If so, we have a special place for you! We need volunteers to work in the nursery and in children's church each Sunday. If you would serve in this very important ministry, please contact Deana Pesnell at 205.821.4993.

Fall A- ZMTI 121 The Writings of Moses

Mondays at 6 p.m. August 23- October 11

First Baptist Church

Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy collectively are written by Moses and are often referred to as the Pentateuch or Law books. Included in these books, readers find a wide array of writing genres such as narrative, poetry, songs, law, and genealogies. In this course, students will examine the major themes of each book and how best to interpret those themes. Register on the church website under "Ministries."
